RE: District Attorney Office Inventory

The attached inventory list reflects the office items that have been disposed of. Some items were not in this office when I became District Attorney on January 6, 2003. Some of these items are very old and had been shuffled back and forth between the counties in this district. It appears that some of the items were thrown away, and some items were sold at the August, 2003 auction. I cannot give a price breakdown of the items sold as they were sold in groups of two or more office items at a time.

We currently have a complete office inventory that reflects all items of property purchased through maintenance and operations, bogus check and drug forfeiture money's. I ask that the sold or disposed of items be removed from our county inventory summary.

Sincerely,

James M. Boring
District Attorney
