

PROCLAMATION
BY THE
COMMISSIONERS OF TEXAS COUNTY, OKLAHOMA
CONCERNING
LAW DAY 2004
110-03-04

Whereas, America has a great and unique heritage of striving for liberty, justice and equality under law; and

Whereas, Congress has established May 1 of every year as Law Day; and

Whereas, Law Day promotes an awareness of America's legal system and our rights and responsibilities under that system; and

Whereas, Law Day promotes interaction between those who participate in America's legal system and the local communities in which they live; and

Whereas, the Oklahoma Bar Association's 2004 Law Day Theme "American Freedom: What it Means to Me" is an important topic for our community to consider and discuss and celebrate;

NOW THEREFORE, We, the County Commissioners of Texas County, Oklahoma, do hereby declare that May 1, 2004 shall be "Law Day" in Texas County, with activities in observance to follow the work week of May 3-7. We urge the citizens, schools, businesses, and media of Texas County, Oklahoma to use this occasion to dedicate ourselves to celebrate "American Freedom: What it Means to Me" and preserve and strengthen the rule of law and the independence of our courts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands this 5th day of April, in the year of our Lord two thousand and four, and of the Independence of the United States of America, two hundred and twenty-eight.
